

1816 Farmington Quaker Meetinghouse

Bicentennial is honored to welcome

Freida

Jacques

“The Honorable Harvest”

As a clan mother of the Turtle Clan, Onondaga Nation, Freida Jacques ((Whatwehni:neh) has devoted her life to peace and healing, bridging her own culture and educational institutions.
Freida Jacques is also a public scholar for the New York Humanities Council.

2:00 p.m., October 21, 2016
Corner County Road 8 and Sheldon Road
Farmington, New York

Co-sponsored with Ganondagan State Historic Site, Town of Farmington, Elizabeth Cady Stanton Foundation
With help from the New York Council on the Humanities